(Grand Cayman, Grand Cayman Islands – January 2007) Do you have a lot in common with Reese Witherspoon, Jennifer Aniston and Christie Brinkley? Is your husband a cheat? Stop crying, round up your girlfriends, and hop the next plane to The Reef Resort on Grand Cayman for a well-deserved 'reality escape' package. Enjoy a complimentary 'Men Are Pigs Cocktail' and relish the opportunity to send the X a postcard from hell. Other package amenities include an island shopping discount and a manicure and pedicure. Another fun way to feel better is a t-shirt painting therapy workshop. Create a personalized t-shirt. Here are a few thoughts: "men are scum, " "cheat'en is for losers," just let the imagination soar, laugh, and have fun while enjoying the secluded, wide beaches, coconut palms and the lapping of the waves. Cheatn'en husband package prices start at $445 per person for a party of four during the summer season and $595 per person during the winter season and include a four-night stay in a two-bedroom beachfront suite, a jeep rental and all the goodies above. Note, when making a reservation please refer to "cheat'en husband getaway' to gain all of the benefits.

"The Reef Resort is located on the undiscovered East End of Grand Cayman presenting the ideal 'reality escape' for women dealing with a cheat'en husband, a divorce or just wanting to get away from it all without the crowds, up-do's and more. Women will relish our huge beaches (1,600 feet long) that provide plenty of privacy for them and their friends. Additionally, the resort hugs the coastline so each room overlooks the beach and offers a balcony overlook while providing guests with a sense of spaciousness," states Leona Baker, concierge and activities director at The Reef Resort. Snorkeling, kayaking, and the best diving on the island plus a plethora of island activities are available and can easily be booked utilizing the resort's complimentary concierge service either pre arrival or upon arrival. "Top off your stay with a tasty treat from Chef Roland as he whips up sumptuous dinners in his backyard garden. BYOB, or chill with homemade ice-tea, and relax as Roland works his magic. The barbeque is mouthwatering but he always has a surprise or two,' adds Baker.
